The experience of a lifetime

Global Health Alliance Western Australia (GHAWA) is a unique collaborative of five WA universities and the WA Department of Health's Nursing and Midwifery Office, and is committed to improving health in developing countries.

GHAWA aims to build strategic partnerships with Tanzania to assist in meeting the Millennium Development Goals 4 & 5 to reduce child mortality and improve maternal health.

Pam was privileged to be a member of the inception party; she will give an overview of their experience whilst in Tanzania and the recommendations.
