The Australian College of Children and Young People's Nurses (ACCYPN) is hosting their 2020 Conference at the Hilton Darwin, Northern Territory, Australia 2 - 4 September 2020.

2020 has been deemed the International Year of the Nurse and Midwife and the College wishes to celebrate and reflect on the work that Nurses and Midwives do and the impact that we have on the health and wellbeing of Children and Young People.

The Conference theme is Recognising the Contribution of Children & Young People's Nurses.

The Conference Committee invites you to submit an Abstract. We are looking for Abstracts that reflect the diversity of areas that nurses and midwives work in with children, young people and their families. Areas that would be potential subthemes for the Conference include, but are not limited to:

- Rural and Remote Health
- Indigenous Health Care
- Clinical Paediatrics
- Nurse Led Models of Care / Integrated and Interdisciplinary Models of Care
- Neonatal Care
- Focusing on Young People's Issues
- Strengthening the Workforce

Abstract presentations will be presented as either:

- Oral Presentations
- Poster Presentations, or
- Rapid Fire Oral Presentations

On behalf of the Conference Committee and the ACCYPN Board of Directors, I extend our warmest invitation to you to attend. We are planning a Conference that reflects the impact and the diversity that nursing and midwifery brings along with the aim of providing you with a rewarding experience, both professionally and socially. We look forward to welcoming you to Darwin in September 2020.

Regards

Jacquie Burton
